

B2B Direct now offers a complete line of Magnetic Ink Character Recognition (MICR) laser cartridges. What many people don't know is that MICR applications are very stressful on the components of a laser cartridge. Most of the products on the market today use component parts for more than one print cycle. This will cause degradation of print quality and could lead to cartridge failure. The majority of the parts on our compatible MICR cartridges have been replaced with high quality, after-market components. All of our products have been tested under rigorous conditions assuring the replacement parts will stand up to the beating they'll receive in use. All of our cartridges are guaranteed to generate scanable output, and that is critical in banking applications. Don't be fooled by lower cost alternatives.

B2B Direct has over 50 years experience in the imaging supplies industry. That experience translates to worldwide product development expertise. All of our products are built to match OEM specifications and are thoroughly tested, assuring you the ultimate in high quality, but at very competitive prices. You can feel confident in recommending these products to your customers.
